VAUGHAN'S REVIVAL

PART I.

50 Cents a Copy; $5.00 a Dozen, prepaid; $4.25 a Dozen, not prepaid.

JOHN B. VAUGHAN,
ATHENS, GA.

PREFACE.

WINDOWS OF HEAVEN Nos. 1 to 7 have proven to be great favorites among the singers and lovers of songs generally. Many are calling for the books combined, or for a selection of the most valuable songs that appear in the seven different books. With the assistance of the public in selecting these most useful songs, we have thus combined them, making VAUGHAN'S REVIVAL.

Such songs only as have proven to be special favorites among the singing public have been compiled for this book.

JOHN B. VAUGHAN.

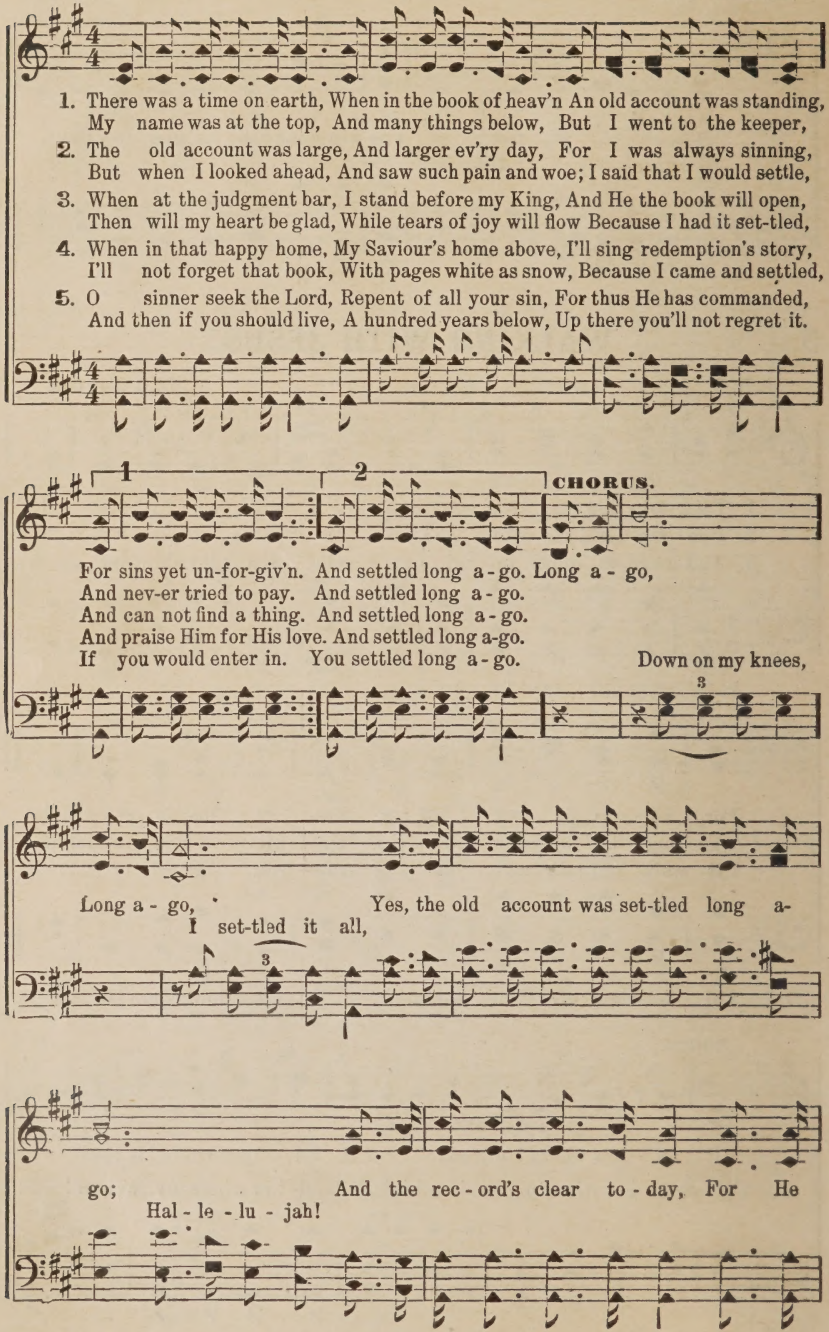
No. 6. THE OLD ACCOUNT SETTLED LONG AGO.

F. M. G. F. M. GRAHAM.



1. There was a time on earth, When in the book of heav'n An old account was standing,
My name was at the top, And many things below, But I went to the keeper,
2. The old account was large, And larger ev'ry day, For I was always sinning,
But when I looked ahead, And saw such pain and woe; I said that I would settle,
3. When at the judgment bar, I stand before my King, And He the book will open,
Then will my heart be glad, While tears of joy will flow Because I had it set-tled,
4. When in that happy home, My Saviour's home above, I'll sing redemption's story,
I'll not forget that book, With pages white as snow, Because I came and settled,
5. O sinner seek the Lord, Repent of all your sin, For thus He has commanded,
And then if you should live, A hundred years below, Up there you'll not regret it.
CHORUS.
For sins yet un-for-giv'n. And settled long a-go. Long a-go,
And nev-er tried to pay. And settled long a-go.
And can not find a thing. And settled long a-go.
And praise Him for His love. And settled long a-go.
If you would enter in. You settled long a-go.
Down on my knees,
Long a-go,
Yes, the old account was set-tled long a-
I set-tled it all,

No. 8. Come and be Saved.

F. R. HAVERGAL. B. B. BEALL. (1905.)

1. Will you not come to Him for life? Why will ye die, oh why?
2. Will you not come to Him for peace, Peace thro' His cross a-lone?
3. Will you not come to Him for rest? All that are wea-ry, come!
4. Will you not come to Him for joy? Will you not come for this?
He gave His life for you, for me! Oh, soul, why will you die?
He shed His precious blood for you; Oh, make His peace your own.
The rest He gives is deep and true; Rest in His love, your home!
He gives a joy so sweet and true; Oh, taste His per-fect bliss!

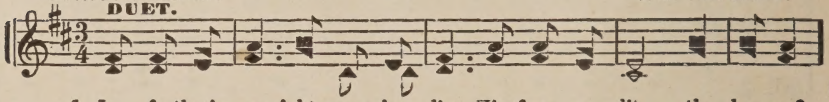
No. 12. DON'T MAKE THE WRINKLES DEEPER.

I met a young man not long ago who lived in my old home. I knew his parents well; both lovely Christian people. His mother was a beautiful young woman when I left the old home, and as years had passed I wanted to know how time had served her, so I asked him: "How does your mother look, is she as pretty as ever?"

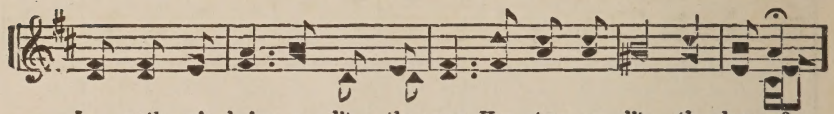
He looked rather serious for a moment and then said: "Yes; she is beautiful now, but there are many wrinkles on her once smooth brow, and I fear I have helped to put them there." I know it was ever true, for he had been a wild young fellow. Think of it, young people.

MRS. F. A. BRECK. J. B. VAUGHAN.

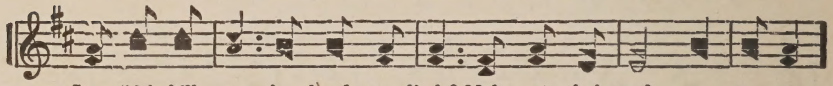
DUET.



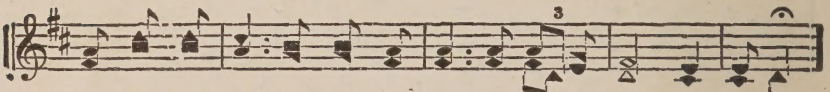
1. Is fa-ther's eye-sight grow-ing dim, His form a lit - tle low-er?
2. There's nothing makes a face so young As joy, youth's fair - est to-ken;
3. In doubt-ful path-ways do not go, Be tempt-ed not to wan-der;
4. Be lav - ish with thy lov - ing deeds, Be pa-tient, true and ten-der;



Is moth-er's hair a lit - tle gray, Her step a lit - tle slow-er?
And noth - ing makes a face grow old Like hearts that have been bro-ken.
Grieve not the hearts that love you so, But make their love grow fond-er.
And make the path that age-ward leads A - glow with earth - ly splendor.

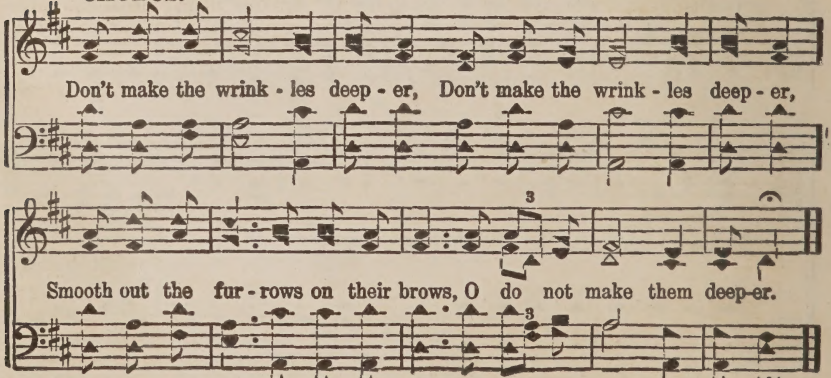


Is life's hill grow-ing hard to climb? Make not their path - way steep-er;
Take heed lest deeds of thine should make Thy moth - er be a weep-er;
Much have thy par - ents borne for thee, Be now their ten - der keep-er;
Some day thy dear ones, strick-en low, Must yield to Death, the reap-er;



Smooth out the fur-rows on their brows, O do not make them deep-er.
Stamp peace up - on a fa - ther's brow, Don't make the wrinkles deep-er.
And let them lean up - on thy love, Don't make the wrink-les deep-er.
And you will then be glad to know, You made no wrink - les deep-er.

CHORUS.



Don't make the wrink - les deep - er, Don't make the wrink - les deep - er,
Smooth out the fur - rows on their brows, O do not make them deep-er.

No. 26. It is Wonderful Love to Me.

JAMES ROWE. S. E. ARNOLD.

1. Oh, won-der-ful is Je-sus' love! It is bright-en-ing all my way,
2. It brought me from the vales of sin, Where the sor-rows of life in-crease,
3. Tho' oft-en dis-tant seems the goal, I shall nev-er de-spair or roam,
4. While here I dwell, my song shall be Full of praise for my King a-bove,
And, wheth-er blue or cloud a-bove, Giv-ing joy to my soul each day.
And placed me, pure and sweet with-in, On the beau-ti-ful plains of peace.
For Je-sus' love will draw my soul Ev-er on-ward to-wards its home.
And yon-der for e-ter-ni-ty I'll sing of His pre-cious love.
REFRAIN.

No. 49. NOT MADE WITH HANDS.

"He looked for a city which hath the foundations, whose builder and maker is God."—HEB. 11: 10.

Arr. by JOHN S. BROWN. Arr. by MISS AVANELLE DYER.

1. Christ went a build-ing to pre-pare, Not made with hands,
2. Put on the ar-mor of our God, Not made with hands,
3. With shield of faith de-fy the foe, Not made with hands,
4. Then come up, chil-dren, get your crown, Not made with hands,
5. That cit-y's built with pre-cious stone, Not made with hands,
And 'twill be decked with jew-els rare, Not made with hands.
And take the path our Cap-tain trod, Not made with hands.
Un-til you hear the trum-pet blow, Not made with hands.
When you have laid your ar-mor down, Not made with hands.
With-in we'll gath-er round the throne, Not made with hands.
CHORUS.

No. 49½. AT THE CROSS.

Key of F.

1 Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No; there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.

REF.—At the cross, at the cross, where I first saw the light,
And the burden of my heart rolled away;
It was there by faith I received my sight,
And now I am happy night and day.

2 How Happy are the saints above,
Who once went sorrowing here;
But now they taste unmingled love,
And joy without a tear.

3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till Christ shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.

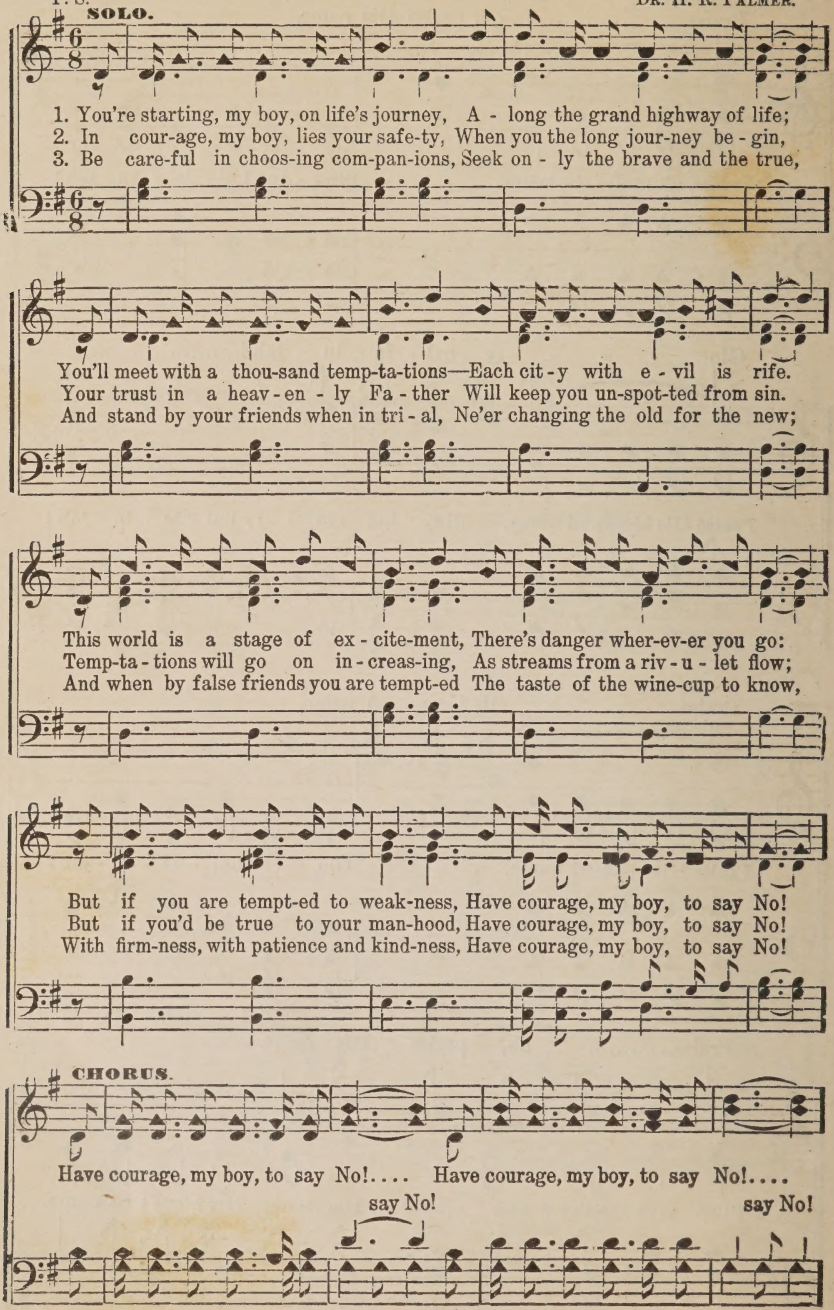
No. 69. HAVE COURAGE TO SAY NO!

P. S. DR. H. R. PALMER.

SOLO.



1. You're starting, my boy, on life's journey, A - long the grand highway of life;
2. In cour-age, my boy, lies your safe-ty, When you the long jour-ney be - gin,
3. Be care-ful in choos-ing com-pan-ions, Seek on - ly the brave and the true,
You'll meet with a thou-sand temp-ta-tions—Each cit-y with e - vil is rife.
Your trust in a heav-en - ly Fa - ther Will keep you un-spot-ted from sin.
And stand by your friends when in tri - al, Ne'er changing the old for the new;
This world is a stage of ex - cite-ment, There's danger wher-ev-er you go:
Temp-ta - tions will go on in - creas-ing, As streams from a riv - u - let flow;
And when by false friends you are tempt-ed The taste of the wine-cup to know,
But if you are tempt-ed to weak-ness, Have courage, my boy, to say No!
But if you'd be true to your man-hood, Have courage, my boy, to say No!
With firm-ness, with patience and kind-ness, Have courage, my boy, to say No!
CHORUS.
Have courage, my boy, to say No!.... Have courage, my boy, to say No!....

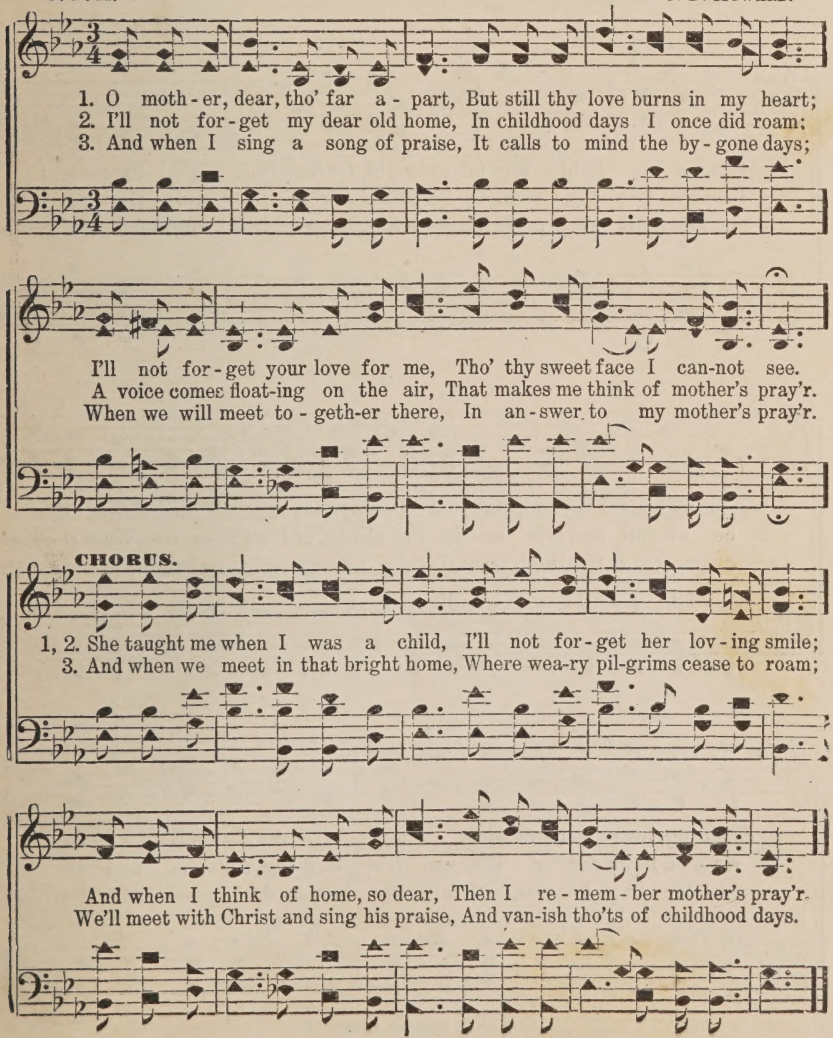
No. 70. THINKING OF MOTHER AND HOME.

J. D. H. J. D. HOWARD.



1. O moth-er, dear, tho' far a-part, But still thy love burns in my heart;
2. I'll not for-get my dear old home, In childhood days I once did roam;
3. And when I sing a song of praise, It calls to mind the by-gone days;
I'll not for-get your love for me, Tho' thy sweet face I can-not see.
A voice comes float-ing on the air, That makes me think of mother's pray'r.
When we will meet to-geth-er there, In an-swer to my mother's pray'r.
CHORUS.
1, 2. She taught me when I was a child, I'll not for-get her lov-ing smile;
3. And when we meet in that bright home, Where wea-ry pil-grims cease to roam;
And when I think of home, so dear, Then I re-mem-ber mother's pray'r.
We'll meet with Christ and sing his praise, And van-ish tho'ts of childhood days.

No. 89. I AM WAITING FOR THE MORNING.

W. G. IRVIN. JAS. H. FILLMORE, by per.

1. I am wait-ing for the morn-ing Of the bless-ed day to dawn,
2. I am wait-ing, worn and wea-ry With the bat-tle and the strife,
3. Wait-ing, hop-ing, trust-ing ev-er For a home of boundless love;
4. Hop-ing soon to meet the lov'd ones, Where the "ma-ny mansions" be;
When the sor-row and the darkness Of this change-ful life are gone.
Hop-ing, when the war-fare's o-ver, To re-ceive a crown of life.
Like a pil-grim look-ing for-ward To a land of bliss a-bove.
List-'ning for the hap-py wel-come Of my Sav-iour call-ing me.
CHORUS.
I am wait - - - - ing, on-ly wait-ing,
I am wait-ing, wait-ing, wait-ing, on-ly wait-ing, on-ly wait-ing, Till this wea - - - ry life is o'er; On-ly wait - - - ing wea-ry, wea-ry, wea-ry, till this wea-ry life is o'er; On-ly wait-ing, waiting, waiting for my wel-come, for my welcome, From my Sav-iour on the oth-er shore.

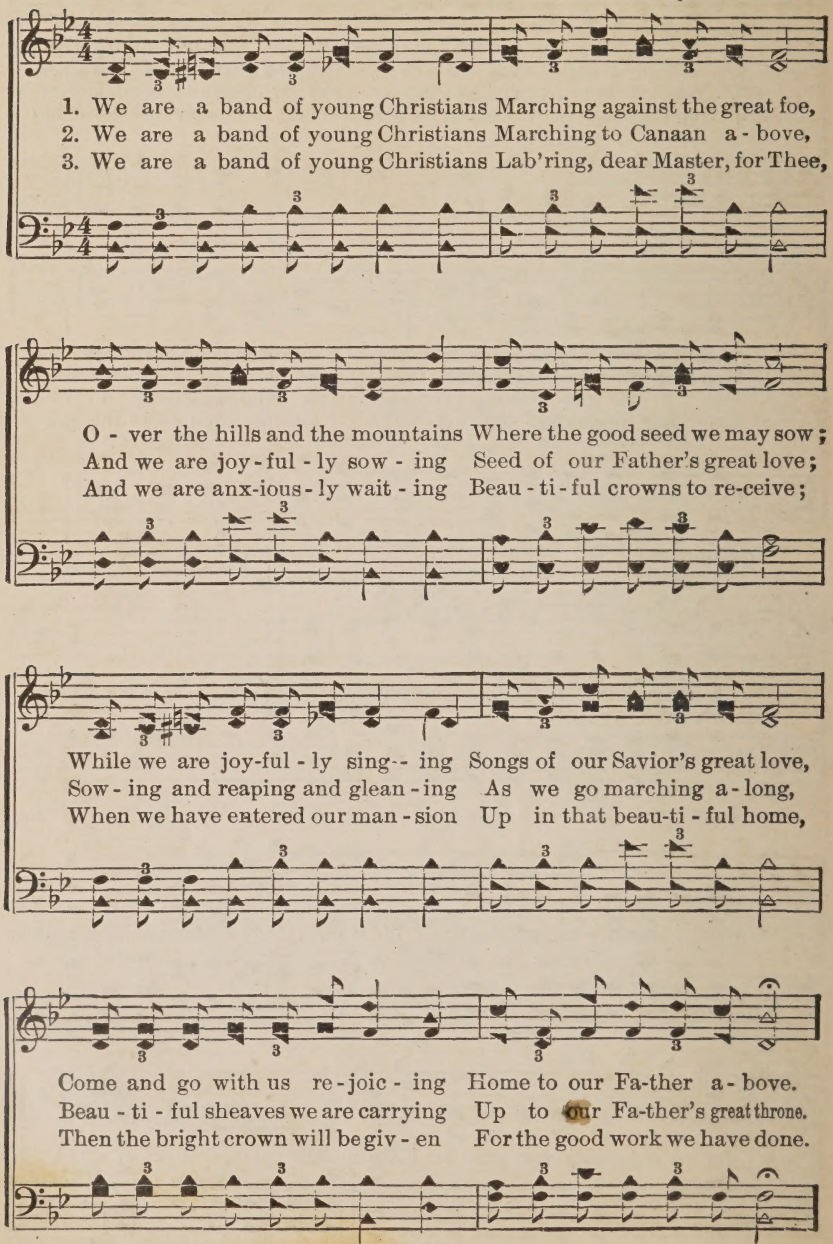
Arranged specially for Young People's Societies.

"Be strong and of good courage."—DEUT. 31: 6.

Words and Music by T. S. COBB.



1. We are a band of young Christians Marching against the great foe,
2. We are a band of young Christians Marching to Canaan a - bove,
3. We are a band of young Christians Lab'ring, dear Master, for Thee,
O - ver the hills and the mountains Where the good seed we may sow;
And we are joy - ful - ly sow - ing Seed of our Father's great love;
And we are anx-ious - ly wait - ing Beau - ti - ful crowns to re-ceive;
While we are joy-ful - ly sing-- ing Songs of our Savior's great love,

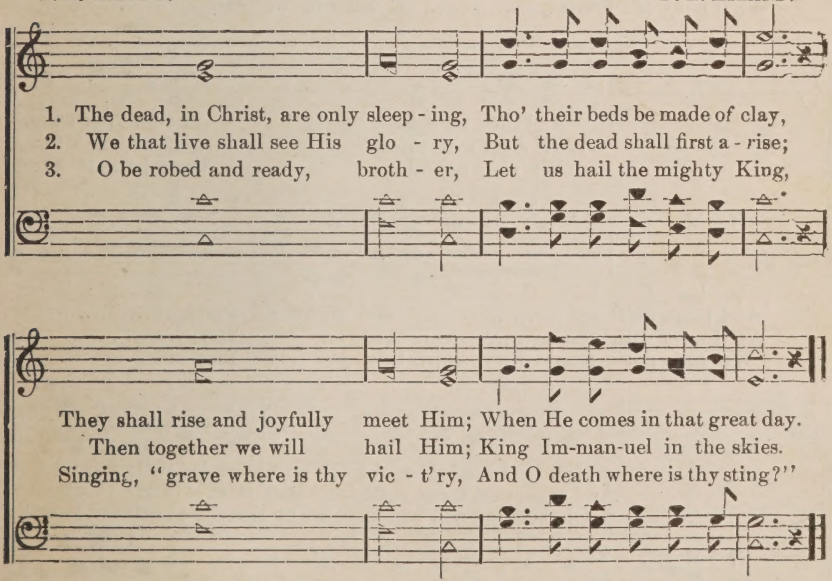
No. 110. ONLY SLEEPING.

F. L. EILAND. F. L. EILAND.



1. The dead, in Christ, are only sleep - ing, Tho' their beds be made of clay,
2. We that live shall see His glo - ry, But the dead shall first a - rise;
3. O be robed and ready, broth - er, Let us hail the mighty King,
They shall rise and joyfully meet Him; When He comes in that great day.
Then together we will hail Him; King Im-man-uel in the skies.
Singing, "grave where is thy vic - t'ry, And O death where is thy sting?"

The sentiment of these songs, when used for burial service occasions, are intended, (as all others should be) to express the true situation of the departed ones, and to magnify the hope which we have of being reunited with them, and not as a medium to intensify our sorrow.

We should be careful in our selection and rendition of these songs, for these solemn moments, that they do not have a misleading tendency. After death, we can neither preach or sing a soul to heaven.

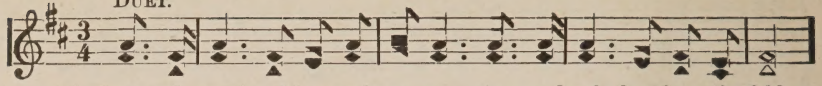
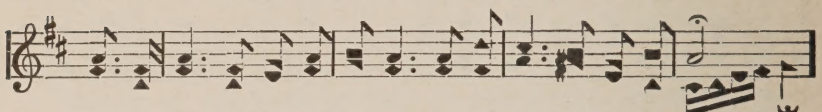
No. 118 ONCE I WANDERED.

BOLTON, arr. J. B. VAUGHAN.

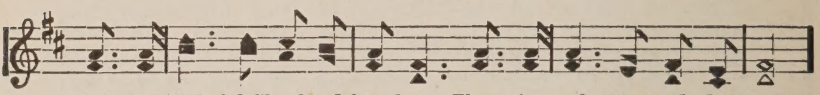
DUET.



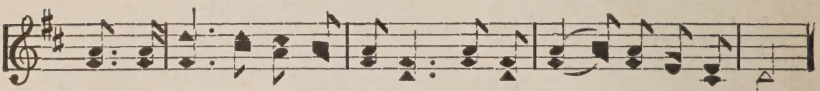
1. Once I wandered lone and wea-ry, As a lamb lost from the fold;
2. Now He keeps me by the riv-er, In the pastures sweet and green;
3. Do not wan-der on in darkness, Seek the ten-der Shepherd's fold;



Thro' the night so bleak and dreary, O'er sin's mountains dark and cold;
But some day I'll rest in safe-ty In the land that's yet un-seen;
Come to Je-sus, He will give you Room to shel-ter from the cold.



But the faith-ful Shepherd found me, There in sad-ness and de-spair;
No more sin and no more sor-row, No more wand'ring o-ver there;
Cast on Him your ev-'ry bur-den, Rest se-cure-ly in His love;



Cheered me with His words of comfort, Lead me back with ten-der care.
No more long-ing for to-morrow, In that home so bright and fair.
He will shield and keep you ev-er, Till you reach the fold a-bove.

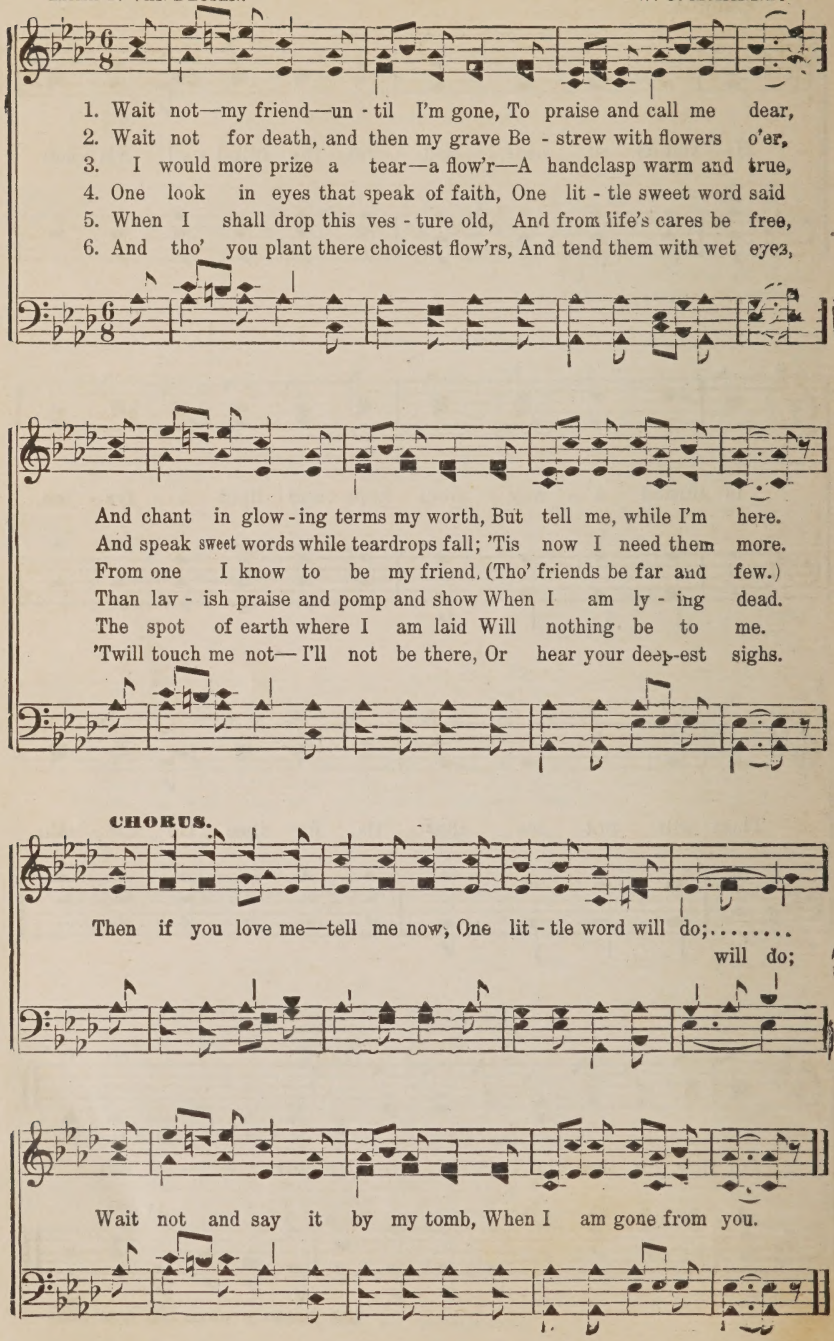
No. 135 TELL ME NOW.

EMMA B. VAN DEUSEN. W. O. MCKINNEY



1. Wait not—my friend—un - til I'm gone, To praise and call me dear,
2. Wait not for death, and then my grave Be - strew with flowers o'er,
3. I would more prize a tear—a flow'r—A handclasp warm and true,
4. One look in eyes that speak of faith, One lit - tle sweet word said
5. When I shall drop this ves - ture old, And from life's cares be free,
6. And tho' you plant there choicest flow'rs, And tend them with wet eyes,
And chant in glow - ing terms my worth, But tell me, while I'm here.
And speak sweet words while teardrops fall; 'Tis now I need them more.
From one I know to be my friend, (Tho' friends be far and few.)
Than lav - ish praise and pomp and show When I am ly - ing dead.
The spot of earth where I am laid Will nothing be to me.
'Twill touch me not— I'll not be there, Or hear your deep-est sighs.
CHORUS.
Then if you love me—tell me now; One lit - tle word will do;.....
will do;
Wait not and say it by my tomb, When I am gone from you.

lone, He promised never to leave me, Nev - er to leave me a - lone.

3 When in affliction's valley,
I'm treading the road of care,
My Saviour helps me to carry
My cross, when heavy to bear;
My feet entangled with briars,
Ready to cast me down,
My Saviour whispers His promise,
"I'll never leave thee alone."

4 He died for me on the mountain,
For me they pierced His side;
For me He opened that fountain,
The crimson cleansing tide;
For me He's waiting in glory,
Seated upon His throne;
He promised never to leave me,
Never to leave me alone.

No. 137 Don't You Want To Go?

Words and music by JAMES D. VAUGHAN.

1. Don't you want to go to that hap-py home on high? Where the good shall meet, yes
2. Think how ma-ny pray'rs have been offer'd up for you, Oft-en while you slept dear
3. Time is swift-ly pass-ing, and soon will close the gate, Then your soul must sink in
4. Could you stand in judgment, if you should die to-day? All that you have writ-ten meet to part no more, And shall live and reign far a-bove the star-ry sky, mother's tears did flow; Turn and seek sal-va-tion, O to her love be true, ev-er-last-ing woe, Give your heart to Je-sus, for soon 'twill be too late,
you must face you know. Je-sus now is plead-ing, He'll wash your sins a-way,
REFRAIN.
In that sun-ny clime up-on the gold-en shore.
While your friends are wait-ing, don't you want to go? Don't you want to go?
Moth-er now is wait-ing, don't you want to go?
To that home in glo-ry, don't you want to go?
Don't you want to go? While we plead and pray, make the start to-day; Je-sus bids you come to that hap-py home, Don't you want to go? Don't you want to go?

2. Last night I dreamt I stayed be - yond the gates of par - a - dise,
3. And when they saw me stand-ing near they flew in - to my arms,
4. A smile lit up His lov - ing face, I did not seem to fear,
Their shin-ing wings are white I ween, like flakes of spot - less snow,
And oh! the grand, sweet songs I heard, that filled the vault - ed skies,
Just as they used to years a - go, when feared by strange a - larms.
For lo! His love it strengthened me the while we lin - gered near,
God took them one by one from me, to dwell with Him a - bove.
I saw my dar - ling play - ing there, all robed in gar-ments white,
With kiss- es and ca -ress - es fond they led me to the throne,
And kneeling there in per - fect peace, I heard Him soft - ly say:
And while I miss them and I weep I'm trust-ing in His love.
And on each pure white brow I saw a crown of gold - en light.
And pleaded gent-ly with the Lord, who ev - er knows His own.
"A crown of life a-waits for Thee in no far dis - tant day.

5 "My daughter linger yet a while, for there is much to do,
And when thy work is all complete, I'l send my Host for you,
And do not lose thy faith in Me, for there thy treasures are,
Remember there's a place for thee within the gates ajar."

6 With trembling lips I kissed the feet that still the nail-prints bore
Again I heard the glad sweet songs upon the golden shore,
Then on through lilied fields we strayed, where fairest blossoms grew
Among the waving grasses green, with sparkling crystal dew.

7 My darlings blessed me once again and then they passed away,
And when I 'woke from out the dream I faced another day,
But still I know they wait for me, where many mansions are,
And lilies grow in vernal fields, beyond the evening star,

8 And so I live in perfect peace and trust Him day by day,
And when the day seems dark and lone I kneel to Him and pray,
And when the shades of night close in I feel that they are near,
And oh! the very thought does dry away each scolding tear.

To the brethren who have aided me in the establishment of the Tabernacle Church in Kansas City, I most respectfully dedicate this song, the proceeds from the sale of which I contribute to missions in Kansas City.

S. M. Brown.

Two young men, who had been brought up together in a distant State, came to Kansas City to get a start in the world. They were employed in laboring on the piers of one of the great railroad bridges on the Missouri River. An accident occurred in which several men were injured, among them was one of these young men, who was fatally crushed. He was taken into one of the tents in which the laborers were living, and, being conscious, he was told by the physician that he could live only a few hours. He requested his companions to pray with him and stated that he was not prepared to die. His friend assured him that he did not pray for himself and was not fit to pray for a dying man. Then he asked that a song might be sung, but was again assured, by his friend, that he knew no song appropriate to an occasion like that. Finally, he begged that a Bible might be brought and a few verses read to him before he died. The tents and cabins were searched, and there was not a copy of the word of God to be found, and so, among his last words the dying man exclaimed, "And is it possible that away from home and without a prayer, a song, or a verse of Scripture I am to be ushered into the presence of God unprepared?"

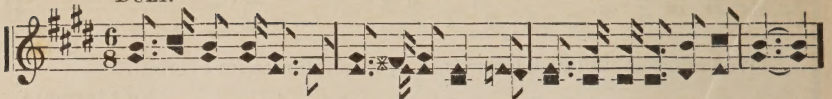
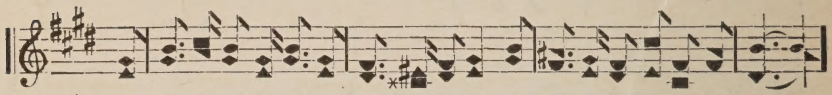
B. W. BOB WHITEFIELD.

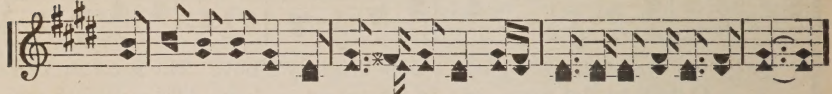
DUET.



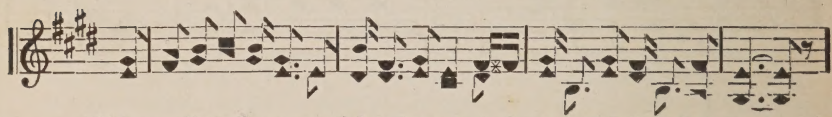
1. Father, dear father, come home with me now, The clock in the steeple strikes one,
2. Father, dear father, come home with me now, The clock in the steeple strikes two,
3. Father, dear father, come home with me now, The clock in the steeple strikes three,



You promised, dear father, that you would come home As soon as your day's work was done.
The night has grown colder and Benny is worse, But he has been calling for you.
The house is so lonely, the hours are so long, For poor weeping mother and me.

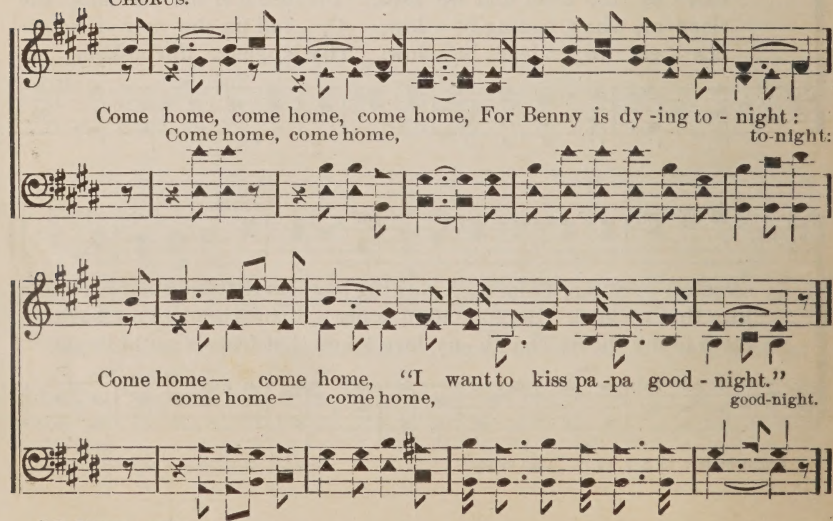


Our fire has gone out, our house is so dark, And mother's been watching since tea;
In-deed he is worse, mother says he will die, Perhaps before morning shall dawn;
Yes, we are a-lone, poor Ben-ny is dead! And gone with the angels of light,



With poor little Benny, so sick in her arms, And no one to help her but me.
And this was the message she sent me to bring, Come quickly, or he will be gone.
And these were the very last words that he said: "I want to kiss papa good-night."

CHORUS.



Come home, come home, come home, For Benny is dy-ing to-night:
Come home, come home, to-night:
Come home— come home, "I want to kiss pa-pa good-night."
come home— come home, good-night.

Key of D.

1 Sweet hour of pray'r, sweet hour of pray'r,
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me, at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known.
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return sweet hour of prayer.

2 Sweet hour of pray'r, sweet hour of pray'r,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless;
And since He bids me seek His face,
Believe His word, and trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
And wait for thee sweet hour of prayer.

3 Sweet hour of pray'r, sweet hour of pray'r,
May I thy consolation share,
Till, from Mount Pisgah's lofty height,
I view my home, and take my flight.
This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
To seize the everlasting prize;
And shout, while passing through the air,
Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer!

No. 98 I Am Saved.

J. T. Camp. J. B. VAUGHAN.

1. Once to God I was a stran-ger, But I'm saved, yes, I'm saved,
2. Once I spurn'd the great sal-va-tion, But I'm saved, yes, I'm saved,
3. When I came my sins con-fess-ing, Je-sus saved, yes, He saved,
4. Je-sus found me in my blind-ness, And He saved, yes, He saved,
And my soul was in great dan-ger, But I'm saved, yes, I'm saved,
And I sneer'd at con-dem-na-tion, But I'm saved, yes, I'm saved,
He be-stow'd on me the bless-ing, Je-sus saved, yes, He saved,
He is full of lov-ing kind-ness, For He saved, yes, He saved,
I was once by sin de-filed, But my Sav-iour on me smiled,
Now no more in sin I rove, For I know a Sav-iour's love,
When He called to me one day, Then I has-ten'd to o-bey,
Bless-ed Je-sus, friend di-vine, I to Thee my-self re-sign,
Je-sus is my dear-est friend And my prayers to Him as-cend,
FINE. CHORUS.
Now to God I'm reconciled, I am saved.
I will ne'er from Him remove, I am saved.
He is now my hope and stay, I am saved.
I can feel Thy hand in mine, I am saved.
I am sav'd, hal-le-lu-jah!
I am saved.
To my cries He will attend, I am saved.

No. 107. THE NUMBERLESS HOST.

D. B. Cade, of Lisbon, Ga. so familiarly known as "Capt. Cade," but should be known as Big-hearted Cade, whose hospitality is known and has been felt from one side to yonder borders and will long be remembered by a "numberless host," was some years ago deeply impressed by the singing of this song. The song appeared in some of the author's first efforts at editing song books and was once used with excellent results, but like many songs, has been left with the past. The song being a special favorite of Capt. Cade he has paid for the making of a new plate and asks me to let it appear in No. 3.—J. B. V.

Bit-ter les-sons I am learn-ing From the gloom-y page of woe;
But if I have Je-sus with me, Then the sky will be a gem;
But if I have Je-sus with me, I pos-sess a wealth so rare;
But my Sav-iour, He is with me, We are walk-ing hand in hand,
Je-sus is my light in dark-ness, He's the star of Beth-le-hem.
He's the "Lil-ly of the val-ley," And the "Rose of Sha-ron fair."
Tho' the bur-den seem so heav-y, But with Je-sus I can stand.

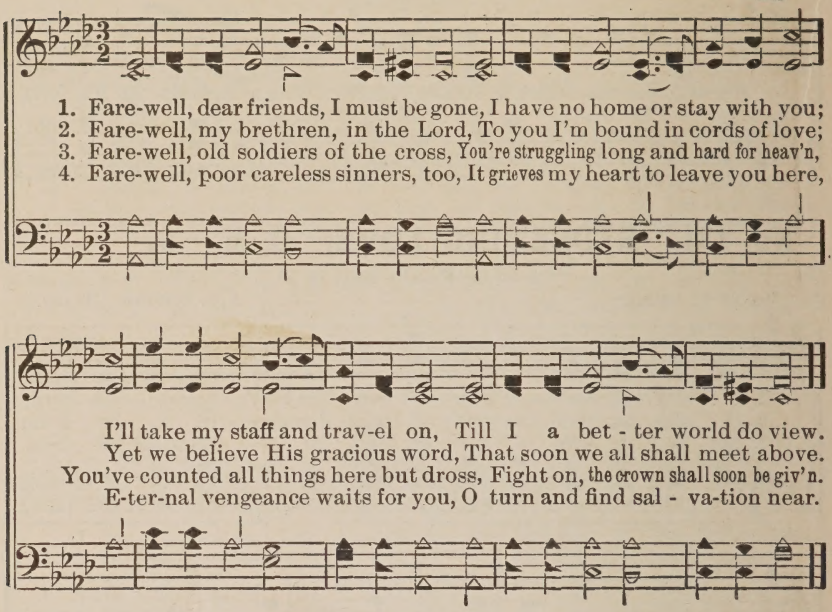
"Lord, help me."—MATT 15: 25.

HENRY H. MILMAN. A. S. KIEFFER. By per.

1. O help us, Lord! each hour of need, Thy heav'n - ly suc - cor give;
2. O help us, thro' the pray'r of faith, More firm - ly to be - lieve;
3. But be it, Lord of mer - cy, all, So Thou wilt grant but this:
Help us in thought and word and deed, Each hour on earth we live!
For still the more the serv-ant hath, The more shall he re - ceive.
The crumbs that from Thy ta - ble fall Are light and life and bliss.
O help us when our spir - its bleed, With con - trite an - guish sore;
If stran-gers to Thy fold we call, Im - plor - ing at Thy feet
O help us, Je - sus, from on high; We know no help but Thee:
And when our hearts are cold and dead, O help us, Lord, the more!
The crumbs that from Thy ta - ble fall, 'Tis all we dare en - treat.
O help us so to live and die, As Thine in heav'n to be!

No. 132. THE PILGRIM'S FAREWELL. L. M.

Arr.



1. Fare-well, dear friends, I must be gone, I have no home or stay with you;
2. Fare-well, my brethren, in the Lord, To you I'm bound in cords of love;
3. Fare-well, old soldiers of the cross, You're struggling long and hard for heav'n,
4. Fare-well, poor careless sinners, too, It grieves my heart to leave you here,
I'll take my staff and trav-el on, Till I a bet - ter world do view.
Yet we believe His gracious word, That soon we all shall meet above.
You've counted all things here but dross, Fight on, the crown shall soon be giv'n.
E-ter-nal vengeance waits for you, O turn and find sal - va-tion near.

No. 133. TALMAR. 8s & 7s.

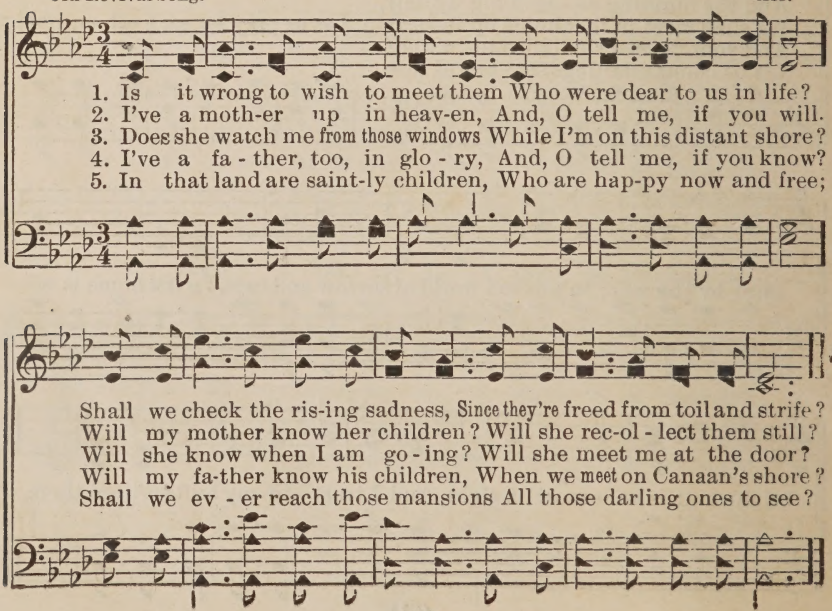
No. 143. DEPARTED LOVED ONES.

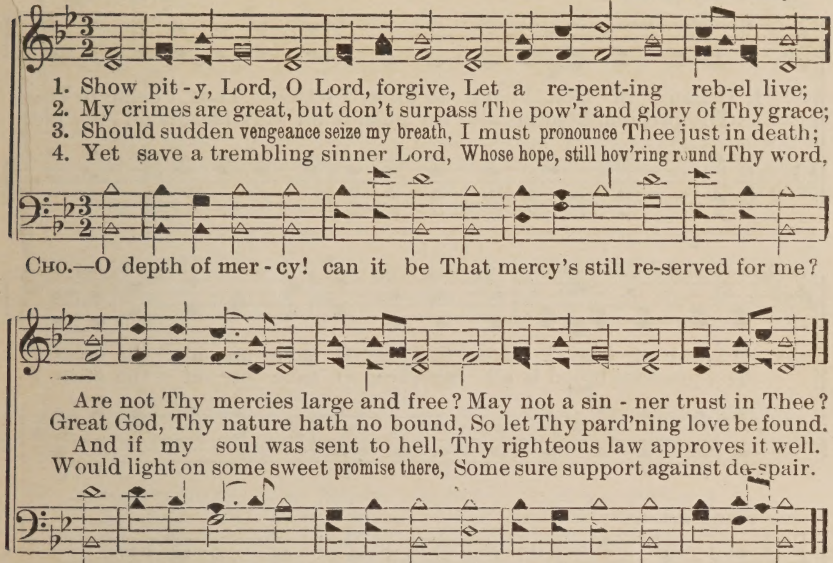
Old Revival Song. Arr.



1. Is it wrong to wish to meet them Who were dear to us in life?
2. I've a moth-er up in heav-en, And, O tell me, if you will.
3. Does she watch me from those windows While I'm on this distant shore?
4. I've a fa - ther, too, in glo - ry, And, O tell me, if you know?
5. In that land are saint-ly children, Who are hap-py now and free;
Shall we check the ris-ing sadness, Since they're freed from toil and strife?
Will my mother know her children? Will she rec-ol - lect them still?
Will she know when I am go - ing? Will she meet me at the door?
Will my fa-ther know his children, When we meet on Canaan's shore?
Shall we ev - er reach those mansions All those darling ones to see?

No. 144. SHOW PITY, LORD.

ISAAC WATTS. Old Southern Melody.



1. Show pit - y, Lord, O Lord, forgive, Let a re-pent-ing reb-el live;
2. My crimes are great, but don't surpass The pow'r and glory of Thy grace;
3. Should sudden vengeance seize my breath, I must pronounce Thee just in death;
4. Yet save a trembling sinner Lord, Whose hope, still hov'ring round Thy word,
Cho.—O depth of mer - cy! can it be That mercy's still re-served for me?
Are not Thy mercies large and free? May not a sin - ner trust in Thee?
Great God, Thy nature hath no bound, So let Thy pard'ning love be found.
And if my soul was sent to hell, Thy righteous law approves it well.
Would light on some sweet promise there, Some sure support against de-spair.
Ah, can my God His wrath forbear, And me the chief of sinners spare?

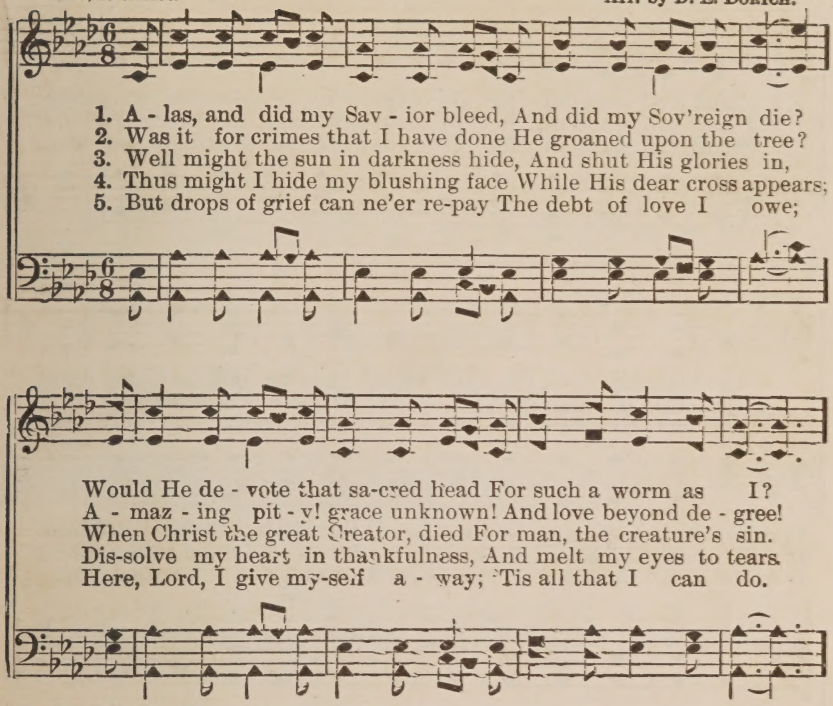
No. 147, O HOW I LOVE JESUS.

REV. I. WATTS. Arr. by D. E. DORTCH.



1. A - las, and did my Sav - ior bleed, And did my Sov'reign die?
2. Was it for crimes that I have done He groaned upon the tree?
3. Well might the sun in darkness hide, And shut His glories in,
4. Thus might I hide my blushing face While His dear cross appears;
5. But drops of grief can ne'er re-pay The debt of love I owe;
Would He de - vote that sa-cred head For such a worm as I?
A - maz - ing pit - y! grace unknown! And love beyond de - gree!
When Christ the great Creator, died For man, the creature's sin.
Dis-solve my heart in thankfulness, And melt my eyes to tears.
Here, Lord, I give my-self a - way; 'Tis all that I can do.
CHORUS.
O how I love Je - sus! O how I love Je - sus!
I'll nev-er for-get Him, I'll nev-er for-get Him,
O how I love Je - sus! Be-cause He first loved me.
I'll nev - er for - get Him, O Lord, re - mem-ber me!

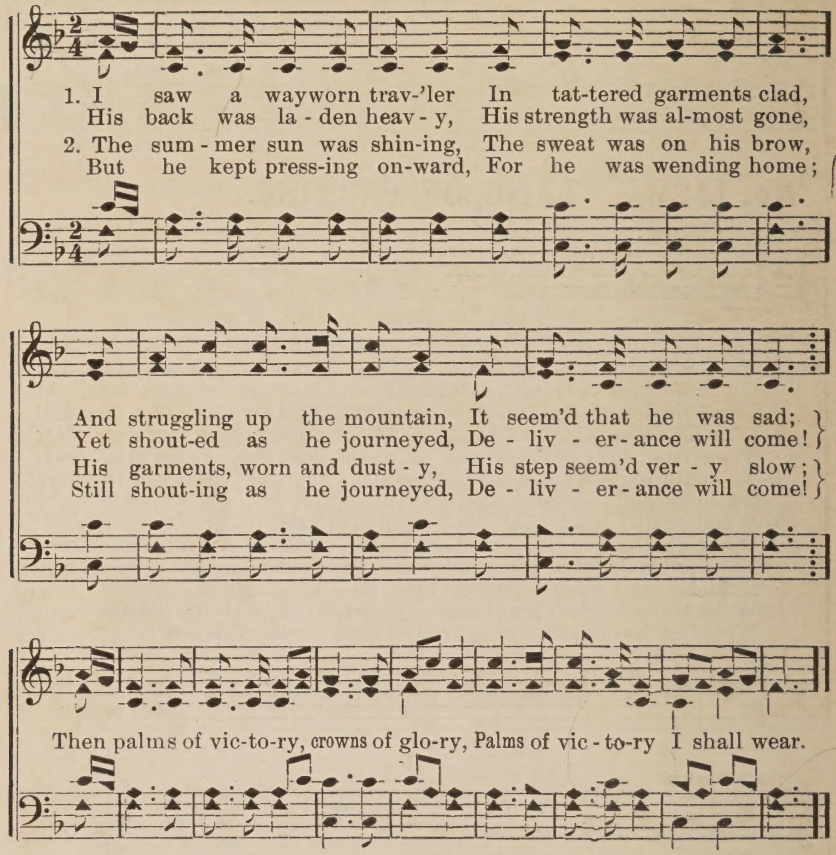
"We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, I will give it you."—NUM. 10: 29.

J. B. M. REV. JOHN B. MATTHIAS, 1836.



1. I saw a wayworn trav-'ler In tat-tered garments clad,
His back was la-den heav-y, His strength was al-most gone,
2. The sum-mer sun was shin-ing, The sweat was on his brow,
But he kept press-ing on-ward, For he was wending home;
And struggling up the mountain, It seem'd that he was sad;
Yet shout-ed as he journeyed, De-liv-er-ance will come!
His garments, worn and dust-y, His step seem'd ver-y slow;
Still shout-ing as he journeyed, De-liv-er-ance will come!
Then palms of vic-to-ry, crowns of glo-ry, Palms of vic-to-ry I shall wear.

3 The songsters in the arbor,
That stood beside the way,
Attracted his attention,
Inviting his delay:
His watchword being "Onward!"
He stopped his ears and ran,
Still shouting as he journeyed,
Deliverance will come!

4 I saw him in the evening,
The sun was bending low,
He'd overtopped the mountain,
And reached the vale below:
He saw the golden city,—
His everlasting home,—
And shouted loud, hosanna
Deliverance will come!

5 While gazing on that city,
Just o'er the narrow flood,
A band of holy angels
Came from the throne of God:
They bore him on their pinions
Safe o'er the dashing foam;
And joined him in his triumph,—
Deliverance has come!

6 I heard the song of triumph,
They sang upon the shore,—
Our Jesus has redeemed us
To suffer nevermore:
Then looking once more backward
He viewed the race he'd run,
And shouted loud, hosanna!
Deliverance has come!

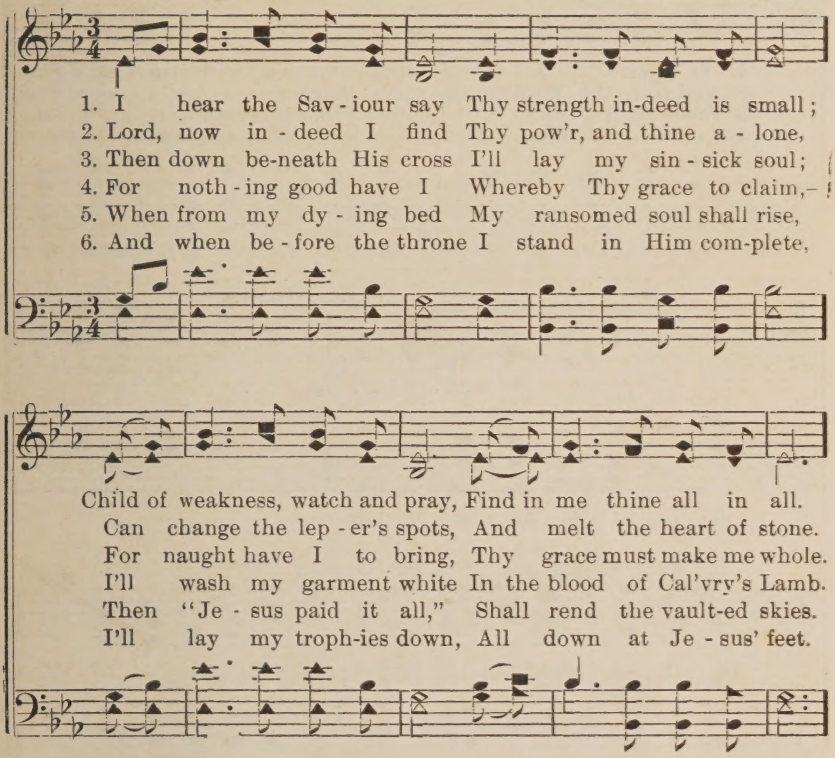
"Who his ownself bare our sins in his own body on the tree."—I. PETER 2: 24.

MRS. E. M. HALL. JOHN T. GRAPE. By per.



1. I hear the Sav - iour say Thy strength in-deed is small;
2. Lord, now in - deed I find Thy pow'r, and thine a - lone,
3. Then down be-neath His cross I'll lay my sin - sick soul;
4. For noth - ing good have I Whereby Thy grace to claim,-
5. When from my dy - ing bed My ransomed soul shall rise,
6. And when be - fore the throne I stand in Him com-plete,
Child of weakness, watch and pray, Find in me thine all in all.
Can change the lep - er's spots, And melt the heart of stone.
For naught have I to bring, Thy grace must make me whole.
I'll wash my garment white In the blood of Cal'vry's Lamb.
Then "Je - sus paid it all," Shall rend the vault-ed skies.
I'll lay my troph-ies down, All down at Je - sus' feet.

1. How tedious and tasteless the hours When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flow'rs, Have lost all their sweetness to me.
2. His name yields the richest perfume, And sweeter than music His voice;
His pres-ence disperses my gloom, And makes all within me rejoice.
3. Con-tent with be-hold-ing His face, My all to His pleasure resigned,
No chang-es of season or place Would make any change in my mind.
4. Dear Lord, if in-deed I am Thine, If Thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine? And why are my winters so long?
D. C.—But when I am happy in Him, De-cember's as pleasant as May.
D. C.—No mortal so happy as I; My summer would last all the year.
D. C.—And prisons would palaces prove, If Jesus would dwell with me there.
D. C.—Or take me un-to Thee on high, Where winter and clouds are no more.
D. C.
The mid-summer sun shines but dim; The fields strive in vain to look gay;
I should, were He always so nigh, Have nothing to wish or to fear:
While blest with a sense of His love, A pal - ace a toy would appear;
O drive these dark clouds from my sky; Thy soul-cheering presence restore;

No. 163 I gave My Life for Thee.

F. R. HAVERGAL, A. J. BUCHANAN.
Colorado City, Tex. Sept., 19, 1889.

1. I gave My life for thee, My pre-cious blood I shed,
2. My Fa-ther's house of light— My glo-ry cir-cled throne
3. I suf fered much for thee, More than thy tongue can tell,
4. And I have brought to Thee, Down from My home a-bove,
That thou might'st ransomed be, And quick-ened from the dead;
I left, for earth-ly night, For wand-'rings sad and lone;
Of bitter-est a-go-ny, To res-cue thee from hell;
Sal-va-tion full and free, My par-don and My love;
REFRAIN.
